

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
Robert Burns: An Address— by Jeppe Aakjær (Translated by Tonny Daa)	5
Burns as a Song-Mender— Tonny Daa	26
Anthropological Study of some Portraits of Shake- speare and of Burns— Arthur Keith, M.D., F.R.S.	36
Cowper and Burns— H. Makinson	48
Colonial Tributes to Burns— A. C. White	56
The Chair of Scottish History and Literature	64
David Sillar: "Poet, Lover, Ploughman, and Fiddler"— H. Makinson	70
Robert Burns to Robert Bridges— Joseph Lee	80
Stirling Burns Statue	82
Burns in Braille— A. P.	96
The Lapraik Family in Muirkirk— C. P. Bell	99
The Saint of Scottish Brotherhood— W. C.	125
Highland Mary: Chronology of the Episode— Editor	126
"Ye Banks and Braes o' Bonnie Doon": The Melody and Song— J. M^cBain	136
Notes on the Song, "O once I lov'd a Bonnie Lass" — Iain MacDougall	143
Obituary Notices	151
Club Notes	153
Notes and Queries	181
Federation Office-Bearers, &c.	190
Club Directory	198